This is the last will and testament of me Martha Richard of Trehylyn in the parish of Llanunda in the County of Pembroke widow made this sixteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seven. I give and bequeath unto my sons Edw and Richard of this place all and singular my messuage tenement and lands called Trehylyn with the lease thereof subject unto and charged with the just payment of all my debts and funeral expenses and also with the payment of all such sums of money whereby the same is already charged and made subject unto by the last will and testament of my late husband deceased. Also I give and bequeath all and singular my goods and chattels household furniture implements of husbandry stock crop money due and ready cash and all other my personal estate whatsoever which I shall die in any way entitled unto, unto my said son Edward Richard immediately after my decease and my will and desire is that my said leasehold estate aforesaid with all my personal estate be possessed and enjoyed by my said son Edward Richard aforesaid his heirs executors administrators and assigns forever subject unto and charged as in the will of my late husband deceased revoking all former will and wills by me heretofore made and hereby nominating and appointing my said son Edward Richard my sole executor and residuary legatee of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year first within written.

The mark X of Martha Richard

Llanunda

test of Martha Richards 30th June 1807 Iss Probate